IMMERSION PROGRAM 2020

WELLS FARGO

January 22nd

The SME Finance Forum invites you to take part in an upcoming immersion program hosted by WELLS FARGO, in San Francisco, California, United States. Wells Fargo has been a leader in most of the US SME financing league tables, developing numerous innovations using data to drive new products and customer delivery channels. Wells Fargo calls itself “America’s leading small business lender”, and they’ve been particularly innovative in the unsecured business credit markets – thanks to their data edge. During the program, participants will learn how Wells Fargo learned to partner with fintech to offer valuable services for SME clients.
